The Power of Relationships: An Evening Event

Join us for an evening of laughter and stories, while we understand how attachment and connection to our babes and our partners will give our children the most important skill they will ever learn, how to be kind and connected people we can be proud of.

The most powerful parents: strengthening the relationship between our babes, our partners and ourselves.

We will spend an evening together talking about the power of the relationship with our children and how connection—no matter what age—can be the most powerful tool we have and (sometimes) the hardest thing to do. Expect an evening of laughter and stories, while we understand how attachment and connection to our babes and our partners will give our children the most important skill they will ever learn, how to be kind and connected people we can be proud of.
