

Inclusive Education:
Who, What, Where, When, Why?!
Workshop for Parents

You are invited to this FREE workshop for parents aimed at increasing our understanding of inclusive education. This session will deconstruct what inclusive education means in today's classrooms and communities. We will also discuss common misunderstandings and myths and leave with ideas and possibilities of inclusive learning communities and all who will benefit.

Location: Spirit of the North Community School
10801-102 Street
High Level, AB

Date: November 1, 2018

Time: 7:00 pm

About the presenter:

Originally from Edmonton, and now based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Shelley Moore is a highly sought after teacher, researcher, speaker and storyteller and has worked with school districts and community organizations throughout both Canada and the United States. Shelley's presentations are constructed based on contexts of schools and communities and integrate theory and effective practices of inclusion, special education, curriculum and teacher professional development. Her first book entitled, "One Without the Other" was released in July 2016 to follow up her TEDx talk hosted in Langley in January 2016. Shelley completed an undergraduate degree in Special Education at the University of Alberta, her Masters at Simon Fraser University, and is currently a SSHRC funded PhD candidate at the University of British Columbia.
